

Quality health plans & benefits
Healthier living
Financial well-being
Intelligent solutions

Stay up to date with Health Reform Weekly.

We want you to have access to the latest health care reform news from Washington, D.C., and states across the country. This weekly e-mail links you to updates on health reform legislation that could significantly impact you.

This week's health care reform news:

New analysis shows stakes are high in Supreme Court case

A new analysis from Avalere predicts that nearly 7.5 million consumers could face an average premium increase of 255 percent if the U.S. Supreme Court strikes down health benefits subsidies provided through the new federal marketplace.

Other highlights include:

- Colorado's Senate kills a bill that would have allowed any willing pharmacy to join a network as a specialty pharmacy.
- Legislation introduced in Connecticut would require health care companies to encrypt personal information of members.
- A federal judge overturns Maine's law allowing residents to purchase medication by mail from other countries.
- New Mexico adopts controversial interpretation of stop-loss insurance that could cripple stop-loss business in the state.

To view the full articles, visit Health Reform Weekly.

CLICK HERE

For more on health care reform, visit our Health Reform Connection website.

Aetna is the brand name used for products and services provided by one or more of the Aetna group of subsidiary companies, including Aetna Life Insurance Company and its (Aetna).

Help/Contact us:

If you have any questions please Contact Us.