Health Care Reform Employer Readiness on Upcoming Requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA)

Several new PPACA requirements are quickly coming around the bend for insurers and self-funded employers. Cigna is preparing for this activity, and we will help you take a proactive approach while staying compliant.

Please join us for part two of our complimentary web meeting series to help you understand what is coming, and when employers need to take action with these fast approaching obligations.

- October 15: Spotlight on the Reinsurance Fee, the submission process into Pay.gov for self-funded employers, and preparation for upcoming compliance dates

During the web meeting, we will also take time to answer participant questions. To be sure we address your most pressing concerns, we're offering you the opportunity to submit questions in advance when you register.
