Marketplace Learning Management System (MLMS) Closing

The MLMS Will Close on July 15, 2016

The plan year 2016 FFM registration and training for agents and brokers will close on the MLMS on July 15 at 11:59 AM Eastern Time (ET) as we prepare to launch the registration and training for plan year 2017.

To be sure your profile is updated in the MLMS before the last day, do not sign up for a new plan year 2016 FFM training curriculum after July 1. After this date, the MLMS is only available for updates to your profile's training completion status. If you plan to complete any of the other plan year 2016 FFM registration requirements (e.g., identity proofing, sign the applicable Agreement(s), or print copies of your Registration Completion Certificate[s]), you are encouraged to do so by July 14. Please note that completion of a plan year 2016 training curriculum, or signing the plan year 2016 FFM Agreements, does not count towards plan year 2017 FFM registration for agents and brokers.

Myths and Facts about the Closing of the MLMS for Plan Year 2016 Agent and Broker Registration and Training

CMS has created the "Myths and Facts About the Closing of the MLMS for Plan Year 2016 Agent and Broker Registration and Training" document to dispel some of the most common misconceptions agents and brokers have about when the MLMS closes for plan year 2016, and how its closing will affect their ability to complete FFM registration for plan year 2016. You should review this document on the Agents and Brokers Resources webpage, along with the information related to go dark provided in this newsletter, to make sure you are prepared!

You Will Not Be Able to Access Your Plan Year 2016 Certificates When the MLMS is Closed

Beginning on July 15 at 12:00 PM ET the 2016 FFM registration and training curriculum completion certificates for agents and brokers will no longer be available on the MLMS as we prepare to launch the training for plan year 2017. To print your plan year 2016 FFM Registration Completion Certificate(s), sign in to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services \(CMS\) Enterprise Portal with your FFM User ID and password. On the "My Status" page, the "Complete Agent Broker Training" entry will show "Complete" in the "Status" column if you have completed training. Select the "Print Certificate(s)" link and follow the prompts. While you should retain copies of your Registration Completion Certificate(s), CMS has directed issuers and web-brokers to use the CMS Agent and Broker FFM Registration Completion List to confirm you have completed all FFM registration requirements, including required training.

If you are not sure if you have completed all the requirements for the plan year 2016 FFM registration, check to see if your National Producer Number (NPN) is on the most recent Agent and Broker FFM Registration Completion List for plan year 2016, available via the Agents and Brokers Resources webpage. If you completed plan year 2016 FFM registration after the date listed in the file name, check back and confirm your NPN has been included when the new list is posted.

FFM Enrollment: Tips for Agents and Brokers in the Individual Marketplace

This document provides tips on the key screens for agent and broker assistance during FFM enrollment. Small Business Health Operations Program (SHOP) Marketplace Corner

Helping Employees Enroll Outside their Open Enrollment Period

The SHOP Marketplace is open all year, meaning, you can help your small business clients enroll in SHOP Marketplace coverage during any month of the year. Some employees and, if applicable, their dependents may need to enroll outside their open enrollment period.

Qualified employees and, if applicable, their dependents may have a right to sign up for SHOP Marketplace coverage or make changes to their coverage choices outside of the enrollment period. Job-based plans must provide this SEP of 30 days following certain life events that involve a change in dependent status or loss of other health coverage. If coverage isn’t offered to dependents, the SEP applies only to qualified employees.

Life Events that Qualify Consumers for a Special Enrollment Period (SEP) in the SHOP Marketplace

To qualify for an SEP, employees and their dependents (if dependent coverage is offered) must have a qualifying life event. Here are some of the life events that would qualify a consumer for an SEP in the SHOP Marketplace:

- A dependent is added through marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for foster care.
- An employee or dependent loses minimum essential coverage, such as when an employee loses job-based coverage or the SHOP Marketplace no longer certifies the employee’s plan to offer coverage.
- An employee moves to a new state and gains access to an employer’s health plan.

- An employee's enrollment or failure to enroll in a plan is the result of the error, misrepresentation, or inaction of an officer, employee, agent of the SHOP Marketplace, or the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The SHOP Marketplace will evaluate and decide if these instances apply.
- An employee proves to the SHOP Marketplace that the plan he is she is currently enrolled in has violated a provision of its contract that relates to the employee.

Notifying the SHOP Marketplace of Life Events

An employee's employer must notify the SHOP Marketplace of an employee's life event that triggers an SEP no later than 30 days from the date of the event. Employers with employees who either become eligible for or lose eligibility for Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program have 60 days from the date of the event to notify the SHOP Marketplace.

If an employee's employer doesn't notify the SHOP Marketplace of the change in circumstances within the required timeframe, he or she must wait until the next enrollment period to make a change.

For more information about enrolling in SHOP Marketplace coverage outside the enrollment period, visit HealthCare.gov/small-businesses.

Spotlight on Eligibility and Enrollment

Streamlined Document Upload for Consumers Who Cannot Complete Identity Proofing Online or Through the Experian Call Center

While the vast majority of consumers who create an account on HealthCare.gov successfully complete identity proofing online or through the Experian Call Center, there are a small percentage who need to submit documents to complete identity proofing. The Marketplace has made an enhancement to its software to recognize consumers in this situation, and route them around the

This is designed to save time, reduce frustration for consumers and agents and brokers, and help consumers who need to call the Experian Call Center be helped more efficiently.

Agents and brokers should expect that they may have consumers who are routed straight from the core identity proofing questions (name, address, phone number, etc.) to the “document upload” step, and are not directed to the Experian Call Center. When this occurs, agents and brokers should help consumers with document submission, and should not call the Experian Call Center. To help consumers upload or mail their additional documentation, see the Uploading Documents page on HealthCare.gov. For a full list of documents consumers can submit to verify their identity, you can review How Do I Resolve an Inconsistency?

Helping Consumers with the Immigration Section of the Online Marketplace Application

CMS has recently released a guide to the immigration section of the online Marketplace application available here. This guide will help you assist consumers with completing the citizenship and immigration questions of the online Marketplace application. It also provides step-by-step instructions and screenshots that illustrate how to complete the following:

- Verify identity
- Provide complete and relevant information about citizenship or immigration status
- Submit supporting documentation (if requested)
- Complete other steps necessary for enrollment in a QHP through the Marketplaces
- Be determined or assessed potentially eligible for Medicaid or the Children’s Health Insurance Program

Did You Know?

The CMS Enterprise Portal is a convenient single point of entry to numerous CMS applications, systems, and databases for FFM agent and broker registration and training, including the MLMS. A CMS user account is required to log into the CMS Enterprise Portal. It is important that users do not create multiple CMS user accounts. Having multiple or duplicate accounts can lead to delays in receiving credit or compensation from issuers for FFM enrollment transactions and other potential delays, such as not being listed on the Agent and Broker FFM Registration Completion List.

You should review the “Avoid Delays in Compensation” resource on the Agents and Brokers Resources webpage for more information on how you can use self-service options to find out if you have a CMS user account, reclaim your CMS User ID and password, and reset your password. Please note that if you created a CMS user account previously but did not complete registration, you can still use your existing account and should not create a new one.
