

Here's what your small business clients think about healthcare

(Spoiler alert: You may find a few surprises)

The latest MetLife & U.S. Chamber of Commerce Small Business Index puts a spotlight on healthcare benefits and some of the insights may surprise you.

- 1 in 5 small businesses say they don't have enough information to make informed decisions.
- 32% turn to brokers, consultants, and agents for expert guidance. But, 27% depend on other resources including Google and fellow business owners.
- Less than half say they're able to provide good healthcare options to employees.
