

Washington Review

We're pleased to deliver the latest issue of Washington Review. This quarterly e-newsletter is available exclusively to MetLife brokers like you and provides details about the latest legislative, regulatory and policy updates.

In this issue of Washington Review:

- House Democrats to recharge efforts to defend the ACA and pass retirement security bills
- High drug prices could be a bipartisan issue
- Efforts to increase state marketplace flexibility and ease ACA rules
- Congress unlikely to address ACA taxes and other pending health bills
- Republicans trying to move package of tax, retirement measures in lame duck session

We're committed to helping you succeed in an ever-evolving marketplace. Let's work together to turn these insights into action.

FORWARD TO A COLLEAGUE