

APEHP: An Exciting Change is Coming to Your Health Plan!

It's official! APEHP is pleased to announce that it has selected Aetna as their new health plan administrator.

This decision is part of their ongoing customer-focused efforts to improve the quality of services for every member and dependent. Their transition from Cigna/QualCare to Aetna will begin over the next few months and will take effect beginning October 1, 2019. More information will be available soon.

This transition to Aetna will include the following exclusive member benefits:

- Enhanced, concierge-style customer service.
- Full access to Aetna's extensive health resources.
- Continued member rate consistency and stability.
- The same hospitals in network that you currently rely on.
- Aetna Select Open Access, Aetna Choice POS II Open Access and Aetna Whole Health New Jersey means minimum disruption and a great network of providers.
