WELCOME TO BOLT®

BOLT Marketplace, powered by Vistaprint® Corporate, has arrived. BOLT is a one-stop-shop where you can order personalized, printed marketing materials to enhance your cross-selling, retention and lead generation efforts.

No matter the size of your business, there's collateral for you. With a library of customizable eye-catching and informative pieces, including postcards and flyers, all you need to do is to personalize the pieces with your business and contact information and order – no approval needed.

With the launch of BOLT Marketplace, you have direct mail marketing tools at your fingertips. Here you may select from various postcards such as annual policy reviews or Short-Term Care cross-selling pieces. You can also make sure you have the ideal follow-up piece on-hand at your next seminar with our lead generation flyer.

As the Marketplace grows, more collateral, including our B-informed newsletter, will be available for you to order and share with your current book of business or potential customers.

BOLT Marketplace has a user-friendly interface and is quick and convenient. With BOLT, you have the choice to order for a specific mailing or just have inventory on-hand to use when you need it. Simply select the quantity needed, personalize for your business and order. You can track your order history and easily reorder through your account.
