HEADLINE

ACA Reporting Deadlines Delayed

The IRS has just released notice 2018-06 announcing a delay in the deadlines for 1094 and 1095 reporting for 2017.

Insurers, self-insuring employers, other coverage providers, and applicable large employers now have until March 2, 2018 to provide Forms 1095-B or 1095-C to individuals, which is a 30-day extension from the original due date of January 31st.

This 30-day extension is automatic. Employers and providers don't have to request it. The due dates for filing 2017 information returns with the IRS are not extended. For 2018, the due dates to file information returns with the IRS are:

- February 28th for paper filers
- April 2nd for electronic filers

Because of these extensions, individuals may not receive their Forms 1095-B or 1095-C by the time they are ready to file their 2017 individual income tax return. While information on these forms may assist in preparing a return, the forms are not required to file. Taxpayers can prepare and file their returns using other information about their health coverage. They do not have to wait for Forms 1095-B or 1095-C to file.

Also, we would like to highlight our holiday hours for the remainder of the year.

Friday, December 29, 2017 - closing at 3pm for New Year's Eve

Monday, January 1, 2018 - closed for New Year's Day

We wish all the best to you and yours and hope you get the opportunity to unplug a little and enjoy the season!
