HEADLINE

IRS Releases New PCORI Fee Guidance

With no guidance from the IRS and knowing that the PCORI fee due date of July 31st was quickly approaching, OCA made the decision last week to communicate and calculate the PCORI fees based upon existing guidance. Unfortunately, we were too proactive as the IRS announced new guidance that increases the PCORI fee to $2.54. The increase is for plans that end on or after October 1, 2019 and before October 1, 2020.

OCA has already begun working on calculating the updated fee for each applicable employer. Their goal is to email the updated fee to each client by June 15th.

AmeriHealth 1095-B Late Notice

Earlier this year, AmeriHealth New Jersey mailed IRS 1095-B tax forms to subscribers who purchased plans individually off-exchange and to subscribers of fully insured group employers. They have recently been made aware that, following the submission of coverage data to the state, the New Jersey Department of Treasury had difficulty processing the information submitted. As a result, some of their customers have received late notices regarding their 1095-B forms.
