Bankers  Fidelity®

Removal of Medicare Supplement products in Indiana, Tennessee, Utah, and West Virginia

As of February 8, 2018, Bankers Fidelity Life Insurance Company® is ceasing the marketing and sale of all Medicare Supplement plans in the states of Indiana, Tennessee, Utah and West Virginia. Policyholders with currently enrolled in a Medicare Supplement policy within these states are not impacted by the removal of this product.

Any applications currently in-house and dated prior to 2/8/2018 will be processed. Applications dated on or after 2/8/2018 will be returned. Please note, this date only applies to the application date; not effective dates.

Medicare Supplement can still be written in the states effected through our subsidiary company, Bankers Fidelity Assurance Company™. All other ancillary products in these states will still be available for download and ordering in ADDS®.

For full details regarding the removal of Medicare Supplement with Bankers Fidelity Life Insurance Company in Indiana, Tennessee, Utah, and West Virginia, login to ADDS and visit your Agent Bulletins folder within the Library.

We will continue to study market conditions which may influence any decision to re-enter the Medicare Supplement marketplace in the future.
