

Martin Insurance Group Commission Pay Date Change

Starting with the December 2018 commission run, Martin Insurance will be moving back the broker pay date to the 26th of every month. This change will carry over into the 2019 calendar year.

We are pushing back the pay date by one day to make sure our brokers receive all commissions earned within the month.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this change please let us know at Commissions@martinins.com.
