

Ways to Help Consumers Year-Round

The Marketplace Weekly Digest is your weekly update on the Marketplace, including announcements and important dates and deadlines for agents and brokers.

Ways to Help Consumers Year-Round

- One of the key areas in which you can assist consumers all year is by helping report changes in circumstance. Learn more here.
- When a client loses employer-sponsored coverage, they may be offered Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act \(COBRA\) continuation coverage by their former employer.
- The Small Business Health Options Program \(SHOP\) is always open!

Reminders

- You'll need to register first before you're able to assist with enrollments! Follow this link to complete Marketplace registration and training.

- Help clients understand that errors in their Marketplace enrollment application could lead to inaccuracies in their Health Insurance Marketplace Statement \(Form 1095-A\).
- There's still time to leave a comment on the proposed rule that would change the maximum duration of short-term, limited-duration health insurance coverage.

Resources

- Here's a resource that you can forward to your clients to help them account for their Marketplace coverage as they file their taxes.
- Get free consumer referrals all year by using Help On Demand!
- Quickly search through helpful resources online by using the new agent and broker resources search tool.
