

Trouble viewing this email? View in browser

Get the latest on at-home COVID-19 testing, trends, OSHA guidance and more

As the national fight against COVID-19 continues, we're bringing together the data- and expert-driven insights to help brokers and employers chart their best path forward. In the next UnitedHealthcare briefing, we will provide the latest on at-home COVID-19 testing and OSHA guidance for vaccine requirements. We'll also discuss clinical updates, state-specific guidelines, advocacy efforts and look ahead to what the pandemic could bring in 2022.

Add the registration link to your calendar

Jan. 5
2–3 p.m. CT

Please review the regularly updated frequently asked questions on the broker and consultant website and employer website.

For more information on our continued efforts to help members access COVID-19 vaccines on time, visit the Vaccine Resource Locator Tool. To learn more about the COVID-19 vaccine record and vaccine pass from UnitedHealthcare, click here. To help identify and report vaccine fraud, visit the health care fraud and abuse site.

If you have questions or if a colleague is interested in receiving updates like these, please contact your broker or UnitedHealthcare representative.

The benefits described on this website describe federal requirements and UnitedHealthcare national policy, additional benefits may be available in some states and under some plans.

This email was sent by:
UnitedHealthcare
9800 Health Care Lane, Minnetonka, MN 55343 United States
© 2022 United HealthCare Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.
1/21 21-1258303

Unsubscribe from this type of communication.

Health plan coverage provided by or through UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company or its affiliates. Administrative services provided by United HealthCare Services, Inc. or their affiliates.